Peak, altitude 13, 785 feet, the highest mountain in Wyoming and on which clings what is claimed by many scientists to be the largest glacier in the Linited States, has been scaled for the first time, according to A. C. Tate, of Stamford, Conn., member of the American Alpine club, and Floyd Stainnaker of Dubols, who have just returned from the Dinwoody country north of here to forward to Washington the record of their trip up the summit. There is no record here of any previous ascent of the peak and many have turned back after attempting to climb it. ing to climb it.

Ministers, politicians, industrial leaders and newspapers, with the fine German talent of always blaming others, declare the latest slump in the mark is due to the unfriendly speech.

CONSIDERABLE SURPRISE. Moreover there is considerable sur-prise because Balfour spoke only of expenditures for the conduct of the war, forgetting that certain nations which served as battlefields have heavy charges of another kind England, not in that category, easily can ignore these reconstruction expenses but it seems strange to include the United States whose loans were spent for a common cause and forget France's ruined territories sacrificed AT JACKSONVILLE answer there has suddenly come from the French a demand for a clearing, which is entirely separate and independent of reparations. We must know where we stand on the indemnity moratorium before we can survey our own situation.

RISE IN PRICES.

"The terrific rise in prices only has begun. They will take on unprecedented proportions and increase the already widespread hunger and misery—d intensify the bitterness that already exists between the classes.

"One third of the population has to be sustained on imported foodstuffs. What these imports cost can be imagined when it is remembered that the German mark today is worth only a two hundredth of its normal value." The allied diplomat asked the chancelor whether Germany wishes to enter the league of nations. The chancelor replied as follows:

"Germany is like a man with the water reachings his chin and with on.
